FAMILY NIGHT SUPPER

Family Night Supper Studies from 6:30 – 7:00 p.m. will offer a variety of programs, including the two below. Fellowship Hall #M220.

Whisper by Mark Batterson

Many people have a tough time believing that God still speaks. We’ve learned from Scripture that God spoke to His people in ancient times and in mysterious ways, but how do we hear His voice now? The truth is God still communicates with His people, but He often speaks in a whisper – not to make it difficult to hear Him, but to draw us close. In this 4-week series, Mark Batterson teaches us what it means for Christians to discern the voice of God in their lives. He will introduce the seven love languages of God – each of them unique and entirely divine. By learning to tune in and decipher each language, Mark equips believers to hear God’s guidance and grow closer to Him. God is speaking. Do you know how to listen? Led by Rev. John Fugh, Jr.

Bible Journaling

In addition to the large group studies, all “tracing artists” as well as confident artists are invited to participate in Bible Journaling. This creative way to get into God’s Word is led by Mrs. Nan Konze and will meet on the 1st Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. (after supper), starting on September 5th. Room #M234.

Wednesdays OR Thursdays: 6:45-7:45 a.m.; Midtown Coffee.

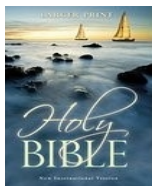

The first fall study, starting September 12th or 13th, will be Let’s Be Real: Living life as an open and honest you by Natasha Bure. From singer, model and YouTube celebrity, the daughter of Candace Cameron Bure, comes a real, honest conversational book that doesn’t hold back. Everywhere she goes and every video she posts has one basic message: this is real, this is life, and we all go through it. Whether it’s acne, boyfriends, faith, stress, or having fun, Natasha’s view is to simply be honest, simply be real, no matter what you face. Natasha’s real and relatable tone paired with personal notes and stories will help readers see that live a “real” life is the best life. Led by Laura Marvets.

Grear digs into the text of Ephesians verse-by-verse and challenges believers to live out the gospel. If the people of your city, of your school, of your family are going to hear the gospel, it’s going to be from your mouth. Encounter Ephesians, and get swept up into the story of Jesus. Led by 1)Sally Key and Tonya Badcock or 2)Anna and Lisa Fugh.

Middle School Boys

Tuesdays: 7:00 – 8:00 p.m.; Jones Home (2520 Nancy St.)

The first study, starting September 9th will be Becoming a Young Man of God by Ken Rawson. From the time they’re born, boys are given a “code” to live by: don’t cry, don’t play with dolls, don’t be a wimp...you get the picture. For a middle school guy, it’s tough enough to figure out what it means to just be yourself—let alone how to become a man. Becoming a Young Man of God is an eight-week study that will help them discover what it really means to be a man. Led by Stevie Lorentz and Jack Wright. For more information, contact Laura Marvets.
